OBITUARIES

DIED

GARLICK,-In Uniontown,Delaware Co.,Iowa.Feb 11 1899,of old age,Mrs Olive Garlick,aged 97 years and 8 months. Olive Garlick was born in Hartford,Conn.June 10 1794. When about twenty years of age,in the state of New York she became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of which she has ever been a consistent and faithful member. Came to Iowa in 1854. For the last nineteen years has lived in Union twp.(Linn Co.) Almost a century she has been in this world. Her sickness was of short duration. To her it was not dying but,"I am going home." She leaves for the little while here two children,three grandchildren and ten great grand children.

KENNETH E TRACY KILLED IN ITALY.

Mrs.Angie Tracy of this city ,Manchester,Iowa,received word Nov 15 1943 stating that her grandson, enneth E.Tracy,had been killed in action Oct 13 1943. He was born at Ryan,Delaware County,Oct 6 1920. In 1922 1922 the family moved to Madison,Wisconsin.Where the young man spent his boyhood days. His father.the late Theron Tracy,died about 16 years ago. Kenneth entered the armed forces of the nation in Nov.1942.and had been in foreign camps for some time. He is survived by his wife and baby son and by his mother,Mrs Russell Fliescher and one sister,Mrs Delores Smith of Madison. by his grandmother,Mrs Angie Tracy and his uncle,M.E.Tracy of Manchester, also by two half-brothers and one half-sister, three brothers and two sisters His brother Russell Tracy is in training in Mississippi. The sympathy of many freinds is extended  to the stricken family in this time of sorrow."

OLIVE GARLICK

Olive Garlick or more commonly known as Grandma Garlick,departed this life at the home of her son in Union Twp,Feb 11 1899,of grippe at the advanced age of 98. She ws converted in early life and remained a faithful member of the Methodics Epsicopal Church until called to the Church Triumphant. An excellent funeral service was conducted by Rev Bickford from Genesis XV-15v.

Kind neighbors,you have my symapthy. Only thos who have suffered likewise afflictions can sympathize. But all we can do is to bow in meek submission to the rod that smites,and pray to God of all grace to sustain,for human love is powerless to lighten the hearts of those bereaved. Only the Savior can brighten your gloom.

With trembling and aching heart I write these lines that you may mark,
'Tis God who has your aged one,He has prepared a place for the old as well as for the young.
The room looks sad and lone,Grandma's chair is empty now;Son and daughter are sad and lonely,Sorrow wreathes their brow.
We shall miss dear Grandma when to their home we go;Our hearts will fill with sadness,and our tears will often flow.
But we,too,must hear the summons ,And how soon not one can tell.
So we bid thee now,dear Grandma,J Just a little while farewell.#

OLIVE GARLICK

Olive Garlick, or more commonly known as Grandma Garlick, departed this life at the home of her son in Uniontown, Iowa, Feb 11 1898, of gripoe at the advanced age of 98. She was converted in early life and remained a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church until called to the Church Triumphant. An excellent funeral service was conducted by Rev. Bickford from Genesis XV-15 v.

Kind neighbors, you have my sympathy. Only those who have suffered like afflictions can sympathize. But all we can do is to bow in meek submission to the rod that smites, and pray to God of all grace to sustain, for human love is powerless to lighten the hearts of those thus bereaved. Only the Saviour can brighten your gloom.

With trembling and aching heart
I write these lines that you may mark,
'Tis God who has your aged one,
He has prepared a place for the old
As well as for the young.

The room looks sad and lone,
Grandma's chair is empty now;
Son and daughter are sad and lonely,
Sorrow breathes their brow.

We shall miss dear Grandma
When to their home they go;

A very sad death occurred in our village about 8:45 A.M. today—Mrs. Story, wife of Thomas Story who resides on North Main Street. Mrs. Story has always been a resident of this town and was loved and esteemed by the whole community. She was a most earnest Christian and was a member of the Baptist Church which organization will greatly miss her as she was always willing to do for the welafre of the church all in her power. For several years past she has been in poor health. She is survived by a husband and one son, Willard, and Mrs. E.A. Williams and Mrs. Charles DeBarr both of this place. She was 50 years of age. The funeral is to be held Sunday, Oct. 28 1898.
